THE LAST CAMPAIGN LIE.

The following scurrilous "address" from Lorrin Andrews appears in the Advertiser this morning:

"To the Republican watchers and clerks of the Fourth District:

"Reliable information is received to the effect, that a certain element of the opposition proposes in its desperation to resort to defeat us at the polls today.

"This element includes the ex-convicts and other roughs, who have been so active during the past few days on behalf of the Democratic party and some of its auxiliaries. These worthies have planned to introduce here the slum tactics by using repeaters and trying various sorts of illegal voting. They threaten to make disturbances at a number of precincts at the closing of the polls, hoping to capture ballot boxes or create confusion that will result in injury to our party. Officials, watchers and clerks be vigilant and always stand for a free ballot and a fair count. With these today we shall carry the Fourth District for our entire ticket by a larger majority than ever before.

(Signed) "LORRIN ANDREWS,
"Chairman Fourth District Representative Committee."

It is well that in another place in the morning paper the announcement of Andrews' resignation from the Attorney-Generalship appears. When he has been retired to private life the Democrats and their auxiliaries, meaning Cecil Brown, will find an opportunity to take the incompetent ex-attorney-general to task for his unwarranted insult. Mr Andrews has never acted as a gentleman and can consequently not expect to be treated as one.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

BUT THE PEOPLE WILL DECIDE.

At midnight we will know all about it, and the usual phalanx of the "I-told-you-so's" will come to the front.

The prophet, who said that the Hawaiians had deserted the Democratic ranks, will go out of the business tonight, when all the returns are in.

The Advertiser will announce election results through a large talking machine this evening. It is a fitting end to a campaign, which mainly has consisted of talker-talker, too much talker.

It is to be regretted that on the eve of election the bitterness of Prince Cupid should have caused him to forget that he was born a gentleman. The truth is especially unpleasant to princes.

Governor Carter and his man Jack are located today in the Waity building, whence the returns of election will go forth as soon as received. Plenty of "boozes" is at the command of the faithful, who have become "repeaters" in the interest of the "champain"—we mean campaign.

The Republicans last night introduced on their platform at Aala an indecent hula, danced by some young hired Hawaiian girls. This is the party which stands for good morals and purity in our community. We feel sorry for W W Harris, a decent man, that he has to stand for our indecent political hula hula.

In a few hours after we go to press one of the most interesting election in these islands will have been finished, and sufficient returns will be in to decide, whether Hawaii is to continue under a one-man power and corruption, or whether a clean Legislature will put a curb on the strenuous governor.

Many attempts to interfere with honest voting have been reported during the day. Secure, in the backing in all their illegal actions of the governor and his satellites, the Republican runners have played a risky and dangerous game. More will be heard when the Grand Jury is called upon to investigate.

Facetiously remarking to both whose Hawaiian appellation is now Keaka Pelekane, a something new, that "we had got you," meaning thereby the election, both answered us at different times by forcing their thumbs between the first two fingers, and said, "Here." In Hawaiian parlance, it is an insult, to a certain extent, but need not be taken seriously. We may have to return the compliment this evening. But it, nevertheless, reminded us of Sonny Cunha's latest, Pidgie, where in words "Auwe, ka hua," appears. Both convey the same idea and is—; well, we won't tell tales on them, or else their—will not respect us doing so. Let them believe so, but tonight will tell the tale when the will people decide between us.

Maui Representative candidates left late Saturday night for the Leper Settlement. They were held back at Aleck Robertson's orders to see the parade of forced and coerced voters and to attend the rally at Aala park, so that when they left, they would go with an impression of how their party can wield its influence, but instead of all this, they saw their medicine as far as Oahu was concerned. A much larger and attentive audience attended the Democrat meeting at the same place and was really the banner outburst of the two. The Republicans vacated their platform over an hour before the Democrats called their meeting off near midnight, heartily singing Hawaii Ponoi. Surely the Maui boys carried the impression away with them that their party had not yet scored a success nor won the campaign till election day is over and the ballots counted.

There was an awful scratching at the polls today among the Republicans, who seem to be suffering from Carteritch, a serious disease, which, judging from its name, has its origin in Russia. Perhaps Johnsonorowsky can tell us about the scratching affection.

IN VINDICATION OF H. M. DOW.

Prominent citizens of Honolulu have gotten up a certificate in which they strongly defend the personal character and integrity of H M Dow, lately chief clerk in the police department. The certificate is as follows:

We, the undersigned residents of Honolulu, moved heretofore by a sense of justice, and having every confidence in the honesty and integrity of character of our fellow citizen, HERBERT M.
